

The Open Journal of Occupational Therapy

www.ojot.org

Guideline/Checklist for Authors

Authors: The intended use of this checklist is as a guideline for your submission preparation. It is not intended for upload with the manuscript.

Category: OPINIONS IN THE PROFESSION

Title	Reflects the paper
Content	Relevant discussion of important issue(s) in OT practice
	Supported by succinct literature review or other methods of research
	Leads to a productive suggestion of implications for the future of the profession
References	Adequate (10-20)
	Includes a DOI (with actionable link) for each reference if one is assigned
Figures & Tables	As needed to clarify discussion (1-3)
	Clearly labeled and understandable
Style	Well written, organized
	Clear & precise language
	Key terms well defined and retain the same definition throughout the paper
Overall	Potential to contribute to the OT profession	